

By Theodora Lee (3A)

Holidays in Hong Kong

There are many scenic spots in Hong Kong. Tourists can go to the theme parks. They can go to Disneyland on the first day and take photos with different cartoon characters. On the second day, they may go to Ocean Park because there are many dolphins and penguins. Tourists can ride on the roller coasters in Ocean Park and Hong Kong Disneyland. On the third day, they can go to the Peak for sightseeing. The beautiful night view is very famous in the world.

There is a lot of famous local food in Hong Kong. Tourists can try shrimp dumplings, spring rolls and barbecued pork buns in Chinese restaurants. On the other hand, they can taste wonton noodles, egg tarts and pineapple buns in Cha Chaan Teng. Moreover, they can try rice noodle rolls, fish balls and curried squid on the street stalls.

There are many famous shopping places in Hong Kong. One of them is called Festival Walk in Kowloon Tong. Tourists can eat delicious food, go shopping and buy different kinds of things there. They can even watch movies in the cinema. Moreover, they can go to Stanley Market for shopping. There are many Chinese traditional goods, Chinese paintings and crafts.